

PINK TEAS ARE DENIED ACTOR

Offended, Mr. Ingersoll Fails to Appear for Evening Performance at Garrick.

DISAPPOINTED AUDIENCE IS REFUNDED MONEY

House Likely Will Remain Dark Rest of This Week.

There was no performance of "The Prisoner of Zenda" at the Garrick theater Tuesday night. A large house gathered as usual, but the curtain failed to rise on time. Fifteen minutes passed, then half an hour, and still the lights did not go out, but the orchestra did its best to entertain the audience, which was becoming somewhat restless. Finally, however, announcement came that there would be no show, and the money was refunded at the box office to holders of tickets.

The reason that no performance was given, according to Manager Emmerson, was that William Ingersoll, leading man in the company, did not appear and could not be found. Mr. Emmerson said that Mr. Ingersoll had not notified him that he would not be on hand as usual, but it is true that he sent another kind of a communication. This communication, Mr. Emmerson said, was sent to him by Mr. Ingersoll at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, and was to the effect that unless Mr. Emmerson rescinded a notice forbidding pink teas in Mr. Ingersoll's dressing room, Mr. Emmerson would regret it.

Mr. Emmerson declares that Mr. Ingersoll has been having his friends call on him at the stage door, and recently Mr. Emmerson, with a view to putting an end to this, placed a man at the door to keep callers away. This is what Mr. Emmerson thinks Mr. Ingersoll meant by the pink-tea notice.

Mr. Ingersoll could not be located Tuesday night, and the house probably will be dark the remainder of the week. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will open at the Garrick next Sunday night, however.

PHONE COMPANY MAGNATE GOES INTO BANKRUPTCY

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 13.—John A. Howard, a Wheeling capitalist and organizer of the Continental Telephone & Telegraph company, the $25,000,000 corporation that was formed to fight the Bell interests, tonight filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

In a statement issued tonight, his attorney, former Attorney General Thomas S. Riley, claims his assets are far in excess of his liabilities, but was compelled to file a voluntary bankruptcy petition in order to protect his property and in fairness to the banks that were not pressing him.

Judge Dayton of the United States court, before whom the petition was filed, appointed Charles E. of the firm, W. Va., receiver. He also issued a restraining order preventing the institution of suits by creditors, and restraining the sale of stocks and bonds held as security.

TREMORS RECORDED BY UNIVERSITY INSTRUMENT

Eight and possibly nine earthquake shocks were registered by the University of Utah seismograph Tuesday morning. The tremors began about 5:30 o'clock and continued for a period of about forty minutes. The shocks were of slight intensity.

Dr. Fred J. Pack, in charge of the seismograph, says that the university instrument's records indicated that the shocks traveled in a northeast-southwest direction. Dr. Pack disagrees with the St. Louis report placing the center of the disturbance 250 miles southwest by west of the lower coast of California. He is of the opinion that the center of the disturbance was in Iceland or in some other extreme northeast territory.

Hawkeye Senator Who Insists On Immediate Tariff Revision

SENATOR ALBERT B. CUMMINS, THE IOWA INSURGENT.

RIOTS IN CORK ARE RESULT OF ELECTION

No Less Than One Hundred Persons Sent to Infirmary With Injuries.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Elections continue to drag wearily along. The public has lost interest and the newspapers have given up publishing late editions. Fleet street and other points where the returns are shown are deserted.

The standing of the parties tonight follows: Government coalition—Liberals, 191; Nationalists, 58; Independent Nationalists, 2; Laborites, 35; total, 392.

Opposition—Unionists, 240.

There were forty-two pollings today, but results in only six constituencies were announced tonight. No change was recorded in these. The coalition, therefore, has one gain to the good.

Party feeling continues strong in Cork, where there are conflicts daily between opposing factions. David Sheehy, member of the house of commons, in a riot today was struck by a stone and so badly injured that he was unconscious for some time. No less than 100 persons have been surgically treated in the Cork infirmary since the elections began.

BATTLE TO REVISE TARIFF IS RESUMED

Cummins Insists That Work Shall Be Commenced During This Session.

and wrath rise up and compel a general revision."

Senator Cummins's speech was the first attack of the session on the Payne-Aldrich law, and it received careful attention.

The Iowa senator disavowed any intention of opening up a general tariff discussion. Still he found it difficult to avoid a general expression on tariff questions.

"It is well known," he said, "that I consider excessive and inequitable many of the duties levied by the law of 1909. I know also that many people believe the law should be amended. During the recent political struggle I did not hear a single utterance by a Republican that did not admit that the law contains duties that ought to be changed and that it is the duty of congress to act speedily."

Mr. Aldrich concurred with the Iowa senator.

"I think," said the Rhode Island member, "that we are all agreed that it is desirable to take up the tariff by subjects, not by schedules."

Mr. Heyburn would not give assent to the proposition that all Republicans are agreed to the piecemeal tariff revision; he advocated the protective policy and declined to be committed to any other policy.

WANT TARIFF COMMISSION, BUT NO RECOMMENDATIONS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Creation of a tariff commission to collect and assemble tariff data, but not to make recommendations, may result from a discussion at the hearing today before the house committee on ways and means.

Representative Goode of Iowa and Lenroot of Wisconsin, both insurgents, and John C. Cobb of Boston, president of the National Tariff Commission league, will endeavor to harmonize differences between measures they favor, and to frame a bill to be presented tomorrow.

This was agreed upon after a general discussion at two sessions of the committee, when several authors of the measures of this character explained their views.

GOVERNMENT MAY SETTLE OLD ACCOUNT IN SALT LAKE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Senator Sutherland introduced a bill today to reimburse Lucy Baire, widow of Moses Baire, a receiver of public money of Salt Lake, in the sum of $1050. The money was advanced by Baire for office rent between the years 1877 and 1879.

Moses Baire is remembered locally as having been connected with the local land office as receiver. It is said that for a number of years he paid the rent on the old land office maintained here. Mrs. Baire now lives somewhere in the east.

SENATOR DEPEW SEEKS TO RAISE JUSTICES SALARIES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Senator Depew introduced a bill today to increase the salary of the chief justice of the United States to $18,000 and of the associate justices to $17,500; circuit judges of the United States, $10,000; district judges to $9,000. The salaries at present are: Chief justice, $15,000; associate justices, $12,500; circuit judges, $7,000; district judges, $5,000.

Lincoln Memorial. WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Senator Culbom of Illinois will introduce in the senate today his bill for the erection of a memorial to Abraham Lincoln in the nation's capital. An appropriation of $2,000,000 is provided for the erection of the edifice.

and, to that learned jurist, Chief Justice White.

After the toast had been drunk, Colonel Roosevelt said he was glad to say in New Haven precisely what he had said to many former gatherings in the west. Colonel Roosevelt said that during the last half of the last century, people had concerned themselves with the accumulation of material wealth, believing that its distribution would take care of itself. But the people had come to see, he added, that they must concern themselves with an equitable distribution of wealth.

"Boilers like this chamber of commerce," said the colonel, "have been industriously taught to regard me as a kind of modified anarchist. As a matter of fact, I think that if you will read what I have said and not what certain representatives of the press have said I have said, you will see that I have tried to preach only the doctrines of which the republic was founded."

Corporate Control.

"I am a radical, but I am a radical who most earnestly desires to see a radical programme carried out by conservatives. I wish to see great industrial reforms carried out, not by the men who will profit by them, but by men who will lose by them; by such men as surround me."

Colonel Roosevelt said he wished to see the hand of the state and the nation placed on the great corporations to regulate them.

"The rights of man must be paramount in a republic, such as ours," he added.

The colonel urged the passage of legislation to benefit labor. It was his criticism of ex-Judge Baldwin's attitude toward such legislation which led to their controversy.

In explaining his idea of the "square deal," Colonel Roosevelt said:

"I want the prize in the race to go to the man who is not fast enough to win it. I want them to start even."

"Equal opportunity," he said, "represented the idea upon which the republic was founded."

"I care for the fact," he continued, "and not in the least for the form. You hear a good deal of national rights and of states rights. I'm for both."

He explained this by saying that they were for national rights where they would best serve the welfare of the people and for states rights where their exercise was most beneficial. Colonel Roosevelt said corporations should be treated with an exact measure of justice.

"Your grocer must make a profit or he won't continue to sell groceries," he explained, "but if you pay his bills without examining them you don't show that you have a soft heart; you show that you have a soft head."

"The government," he said, "should deal with corporations on the same basis as a man deals with his grocer."
